PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. Dr. William Wilson will fill the pulpit again tomorrow at both morning and evening services at Fourth Presbyterian Church. The evening service will be held on the church lawn under tent. The subject will be "The Gift that He Made." Those who have had the privilege of hearing Dr. Wilson will welcome the announcement that he is to have charge of another community service before he leaves the city. The tent services are popular, with good music and helpful talks. The community is invited to attend. Services begin at 7:30 o'clock. The Boy Scouts of Troop No. 45, at Fourth Presbyterian Church, had their first pathfinder hike yesterday afternoon. They visited Washington Monument and took a general view of the city. The hike had a swim in the public pool at the foot of the monument. Next Thursday afternoon they will visit the Zoological Garden and take a swim at Rock Creek Park. These hikes will be continued every Thursday afternoon until every place of interest during the summer. Boys in the neighborhood are welcome on the hikes. They should leave their names with Mr. Edson, at the Fourth Church.

MISS ANNA B. TAFT and FOLGER MCKINSEY (the Benztown bard), speakers at the country life conferences which begin Monday at M. A. C.

Miss Taft. Folger McKinsey.

COUNTRY LIFE UPLIFT, TOPIC OF CONFERENCES

Gathering at College Park Institution to Consider Betterment of Rural Conditions.

The "back-to-the-farm" movement, which means so much to the health and economic welfare of the future America, and the "rural church problem," with its wide influence upon the country's religious life, are to be considered by experts and special lecturers at the Country Life School and Country Life Conference for Ministers, whose sessions begin on Monday, July 26, at Maryland Agricultural College, College Park.

Preliminary registration have been received from the District of Columbia, Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the managers of the conferences, B. H. Darrow, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of the college, estimates that the attendance at this second annual religious gathering at College Park, will far outstrip that of the successful meetings of last year.

The Country Life School will begin Monday, July 26, and will continue through Tuesday, August 3. Each morning at 8:15 Miss Anna B. Taft, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church last summer, has arrived in the city and will begin the term of summer services tomorrow morning. The theme of the sermon will be "The Unconventional Christ." Dr. Smith is an evangelist and motorist. Leaving his home in Tennessee a week ago last Tuesday, he motored through Eastern Tennessee to the Virginia line and then, through Virginia, up the Shenandoah Valley to Winchester, Cumberland and Bedford Springs, and thence via the Lincoln highway to Pittsburgh, where he preached last Sunday. On Monday he motored from Pittsburgh to Washington, a distance of 225 miles. The best day's run was from New Market, Va. to Abingdon, Va., a trip of 23 miles. The entire journey developed only one tire, and the arrival in Washington showed a total mileage of 975 miles. The Tennessee pastor expects to spend the summer, between Sunday and Sunday, in motoring over the roads leading out of Washington.

Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Knoxville, Tenn., who filled the pulpit of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church last summer, has arrived in the city and will begin the term of summer services tomorrow morning. ANNOUNCE TENT SERVICES.

Adventist Speaker for Each Night Next Week.

Answering the question, "Who Changed the Sabbath?" Evangelist Harter will speak at the Adventist Tent, Eleventh and C streets southeast, tomorrow night. The sermon will be preceded by half hour's musical service, beginning at 7:30. An interesting program has been arranged for tomorrow night, including several selections by the choir and also some instrumental numbers.

Monday night L. A. Hanson will give an illustrated medical lecture, "The White Plague and Some Ways of Meeting It." Evangelist Horton will speak Tuesday night on "The United States in Prophecy." The subjects announced for the remainder of the week are: "Union of Church and State," "The Federation of Churches," and "Religious and Civil Liberty."

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST.

Rev. Henry F. Lutz, pastor of the H Street Christian Church, southwest, has returned from a short vacation trip to Pennsylvania and will conduct the open-air service on the church lawn tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. This church's outdoor meetings have been very successful the past month. Tomorrow evening the boys' band of the church and a choir will render special music and lead the gospel songs.

Rev. Dr. Earle Willey, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church, will take his annual vacation during August. On the first three Sundays of the pastor's vacation the pulpit will be occupied by Rev. Charles N. Jarrett, of Huntington, W. Va.

Tomorrow evening Dr. Willey will conclude his series of three illustrated sermons on "Bible Lands in the Great War," with an address on "Through the Argean and Eastern Mediterranean Seas."

METHODIST.

At Washington Grove camp meeting the platform meeting tomorrow at 2 p. m. will be conducted by laymen. The general subject will be "Business in Religion." Thomas J. Owens, of Gaitherburg, will preside and speak on "System in the Religious Life." John B. Ely, of Gaitherburg, will present "Money for Religious Work." Harry S. Welch will discuss "Promptness and Vigor in Religious Service." Rev. John E. Fort is in charge of all the evangelistic services. Rev. William L. Lynn, of Hagerstown, is to preach Monday evening, July 26.

Tomorrow morning in Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church the district superintendent, Rev. Whitford L. McDowell, D. D., will preach on the theme, "The Proof of Your Love." At the special musical service in the evening the quartet choir will present the following program: Anthem, "I Lift Mine Eyes" (Davis), "The Lord Is My Light" (Parker), "Te Deum" (Schilling), and "A Song in the Wilderness" (Woodward). Soloists, "Consider the Lilies" (Blackford), "My Song Shall Be Always Thy Mercy" (Mendelssohn).

Rev. Dr. F. J. Prettyman will continue his series of illustrated sermons at the Mount Pleasant M. E. Church, South, tomorrow evening when his subject will be "The Trial and Crucifixion of Jesus." He will consider both the ecclesiastical and the civil trials and will show pictures of the traditional and modern accepted site of these incidents in the life of the Savior.

Dr. Prettyman expects to announce very soon the date for starting the work on the new chapel which is to be located on Sixteenth street, near Mount. Of the fund required for the erection of the new building more than three-fourths has been obtained and it is hoped to occupy the new church home before January 1.

The women of the Mount Pleasant Church will hold a carnival tonight and tomorrow morning in Emmanuel Church, Prince George County, and will speak in the evening at Irving Church in this city. Rev. J. J. Ringer, pastor.

Southern Methodist ministers of Washington will join with the ministers of the Baltimore district in a preachers' meeting which will be held on Monday, July 26, at Wesley Grove Camp. The Washington pastors will go in a body to the camp meeting site at Dorsey Station, on the Baltimore and Ohio.

Rev. H. H. Hout, pastor of Calvary M. E. Church, will be spending his vacation at Piedmont, W. Va.

At the meeting recently held in Baltimore for the purpose of completing the organization of the Baltimore Conference Epworth League, of the Southern Methodist Church, the following officers were chosen: President, R. T. Buckingham, Washington; vice president, T. C. Thomas, Baltimore; secretary, Miss Mary B. Nelson, Washington; treasurer, Miss Harriet Templeman, Baltimore. Miss Stuart Anderson, Washington, has been named as the hostess for the annual conference of the new organization to be held in Washington for three days, beginning on the evening of October 15.

All plans have been completed for the Summer Vacation Institute, which the Washington Epworth League will conduct at Mountain Lake Park, Md., Monday, July 26 to Monday, August 2. A special car will leave Union Station at 8 a. m. Monday for the accommodation of the league delegates. At the present time Trinity Church, of which Rev. J. Phelps Hand is pastor, leads in the registration of delegates for the institute. President David H. Davenport, of the league at that church, having reported fourteen names of persons who intend to take the trip to the committee. While the institute has been arranged by the District Epworth League, a cordial invitation to attend has been extended to all persons who desire to increase their efficiency in the work of the church and at the same time spend a pleasant vacation in the mountains.

The institute's daily program follows: 6:45 to 7:15, morning watch; 7:45 to 8:45, breakfast; 8:45 to 9:35, Bible study. The institute is in attendance, Rev. Dr. Whitford L. McDowell, superintendent of Washington district and dean of the institute faculty, leader of subject, "The Gospel According to Luke," 9:40 to 10:25, departmental lectures, first department, Rev. Dr. W. L. McDowell, instructor, second department, Rev. G. L. Roy

BAPTIST.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Muir, pastor of Temple Baptist Church, will take his vacation in August. During his absence the pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Clifford A. Owens, of Humboldt, Tenn. All services, including the Bible school and the young people's meetings, will be continued as usual.

Dr. Muir will spend his vacation, for the most part, in Montreal, Canada.

"Should Washington Preachers Dance?" is Rev. E. H. Swen's sermon topic for tomorrow night at Centennial Baptist Church. The right hand of fellowship will be extended to new members at the morning service before the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Centennial's new church building of concrete with hollow walls has been found cool and comfortable during the hot weather.

Rev. John E. Briggs will preach at Fifth Baptist Church tomorrow morning on the subject, "Paraphrases of God's Nature, Sufferings and Love." Miss Emma Robey will sing at night. Rev. Mr. Briggs will deliver the second of the series of Sunday evening sermon addresses on "The Holy Land and the Master." This address will begin with the baptism of our Lord and will follow His teachings and miracles through His great Galilean ministry. As on last Sunday evening, the sermon will be illustrated by views taken from Bible lands as shown today and also by the great paintings of such masters as Dora and Tissot. The songs and scriptures will also be thrown on the screen. George Powell, Dr. the tenor, will sing "Lead Kindly Light."

FOREIGN LEGION'S LOSS BIG.

Swiss Regiment of 4,600 Reduced to 820, Germans Say.

Berlin, July 22.—Among the items given out today by the Overseas News Agency was the following:

"Two soldiers of the French foreign legion, who recently returned to Geneva on account of wounds, reported that one regiment consisting of 4,600 Swiss was reduced to 820 members in the battles north of Arras. Another regiment of 2,000 Swiss lost all but 222 men."

Rev. Clarence A. Vincent, D. D., pastor of Mount Pleasant Congregational Church, Washington, and Rev. W. J. Richards, of Baltimore, have been named delegates of the Washington Congregational Association to the National Council, which will meet at New Haven, Conn., October 20-27.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of First Congregational Church will meet at the Epworth League tomorrow evening at 6:30 o'clock at Camp Good Will. The leaders will be Robert Kempton and Miss Bailey.

The assistant pastor, Rev. Robert W. Coe, will preach at First Church in morning on the subject "Defect and Power."

RED MEN HEAR ADDRESSES.

Garden, president, in the chair.

U-51 Still Afloat, Germans Say.
Berlin, July 22.—The German admiralty issued an official statement today denying that the submarine "U-51" had been sunk off Varna in the Black Sea by a Russian warship. It was the "U-51" which made the trip from Wilhelmshaven to Constantinople and sank the British battleships Triumph and Mauretius off the Dardanelles. Reports had been circulated in London last week that the "U-51" had been destroyed.
